REQUEST TO USE TRANSFER CREDIT TOWARDS MATH MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

Complete this form if you have transfer credit you want to use towards your Math major requirements. You must already be a declared Math major and the transfer credit must already be on your Stanford transcript. Submit the completed form with additional materials attached to the Math Department Student Services Specialist in 380-381S.

Name: _______________________________     Date: ______________________
Email: _______________________________     ID#: _______________________

 In addition to the following information, please provide a course description and syllabus from the course you wish to transfer, as well as an unofficial transcript from that college/university.

Course Information
Number & Title: _____________________________________________________
Institution: ________________________________  Term: ___________________
Semester or Quarter: ________________________  # of Units: ________________
of Units Received from Stanford: ______________________________________
Requirements (homework, exams, papers, etc.): ____________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
How often the class met per week: ____________________    Final Grade: ______
Text(s) used--title and author(s): _________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
What you think the Stanford course equivalent is: ___________________________
___________________________________________________________________

OFFICE USE ONLY:
Approved as equivalent to Stanford Math course(s): __________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
Approved by: ________________________________________________________________
Faculty Name    Signature    Date